The News.

Owing to the severe storm of yesterday, we have no telegraphic news from the East this morning, the wires have been broken down east of Chicago.

By way of St. Louis we have later news from Utah, Col. Stevens' train having arrived in advance of the mail. Col. JOHNSTON intends to enter Salt Lake City with his little army immediately, unless he receives instructions from the President to await reinforcements.

The St. Louis Republican learns that a fearful hurricane passed over the village of Bentonville, Arkansas, blowing down every house in town, and killing twenty-five persons.

We have no Eastern market report. Our own market yesterday was dull.

Weather stormy. Last night we had a change from rain to sleet, with a strong wind. Several vessels have been blown ashore, particulars of which will be found elsewhere this morning.

THE RECENT FIRE AT HORICON.—A day or two after the fire at Horicon, a week ago Saturday, we published an item about the fire, which was sent us by Mr. Pomeroy, and which the Sentinel, with its customary assininity, pronounced grossly exaggerated, probably before it knew anything about it, aside from what we had published — The Horicon Argus of last week, has full particulars of the fire, and confirms our item concerning it, in full, except that we had it stone mills, when it should have been store and mills. The loss, says the Argus, was in the neighborhood of $15,000. The Argus says that at least twenty other roofs were kindled in the course of the night, by the falling cinders, but they were put out again.—Wisconsin of yesterday.

If we undertook to correct all the blunders of the Wisconsin, we should have our hands full. Nor should we have noticed the one above referred to, save at the request of a citizen of Horicon, who gave us the particulars of the fire several hours before we saw the Wisconsin's fabulous account. We copy a single paragraph from that account, as an illustration of the whole. After describing the burning of the mills, the Wisconsin said:

> Upwards of twenty houses in town took fire, from the falling of burning shingles. So strong was the wind that but few were saved.

The Horicon Argus, instead of "confirming" the above, as our "asinine" neighbor claims, briefly states, that "at least twenty other roofs" took fire, "but they were put out again."—Another story altogether.

A VISIT FROM THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE D. & M. RAILWAY.—We are informed that Messrs. Brydges, Reynolds, Walker, Stewart, Trowbridge and Higham, leave this morning at half past 8 o'clock, by special train, for this city. The train will come to the end of the iron which is within six miles of the river. The object of these gentlemen is to inspect the condition of the road, and to provide and mature plans for its certain and speedy completion.—This visit will afford them the opportunity to examine the resources of this Valley, and we bespeak for them a happy and cordial welcome.—The enterprise in which they are engaged is one that is vital to our every interest. It is expected that Mr. Brydges and his associates will visit Grand Rapids previous to their return.—Grand Rapids Enquirer, April 8.

We understand that these gentlemen will be in Milwaukee early next week, and as the great enterprise with which they are connected is of the first importance to our city and State, we hope that our Merchants, Business Men and others will be ready to take them by the hand, and bid them God speed in their good work.

GOV. WISE ON EMANCIPATION.—Below we give a passage from the Washington correspondence of the New York Times, which may be taken for whatever the reader deems it worth, concerning the position and purposes of Gov. Wise.—After alluding to the rumored intrigues of Mayor Wood, the writer says:

"Gov. Wise has nobler objects of action. He has, or is about to separate from the regular democratic organization upon a question which will agitate Virginia and all the Southern States for the next twenty years, with an intensity approaching the violence of the seditions of ancient Rome. It is the Slavery question. Gov. Wise is preparing himself for the great controversy of emancipation. That is the real basis of his hostility to the Lecompton constitution. He sees that Kansas can never become a market for the slaves of Virginia, while to force a pro-slavery government upon her, would give additional strength to the anti-emancipation party in Virginia and at Washington.

This great social question has been precipitated upon Virginia by the same means as in Missouri. It is the fruit of the internal improvement system, and the immigration of whites of the middle class. These two influences are so rapidly increasing the price of lands as to render them too valuable for the occupation of colored laborers. Gov. Wise is statesman enough to perceive that these tendencies of the times cannot be resisted. The movement may be guided and the results tempered. He has the courage to govern his conduct by the requirements of the future, rather than the necessities of his present position. He, therefore, openly supports Eli Thayer's schemes of white colonization, and all the projects for canals and railroads which are running Virginia so heavily in debt, and may not improbably make her the greatest State of the Union, in population, wealth and political power."

LOOK OUT!—Our City authorities are requested to read the following belligerant card from the Green Bay Advocate, and "prepare for action:"

In answer to certain question of ours, in regard to the feasibility of an honest man's going to Milwaukee and getting away again with his clothes on his back, the Sentinel says:

"Mr. Advocate, your questions shall be answered categorically. 1—Bring some baggage with you, by all means. We have noticed the Advocate man, about town here, once or twice of late, and though he never brought any baggage with him, he always managed to take some away. 2—You may be quite certain of "getting away" again. Our police attend to that. They shipped off three to Chicago last week. 3—We should not advise putting your "boots outside," if there are as many snakes in them as when you last visited Milwaukee.

We owe the Sentinel man one. We shall favor his city with a visit. And if we are escorted out of town by the municipal authorities, it will be out of gratitude that at least one Milwaukee editor has got his deserts.

MOUNT VERNON.—Mr. John A. Washington, the present owner of Mount Vernon, proposes to sell 200 acres of it, minus the grave of Washington, which would be worth about $10,000, for $200,000. He formerly refused to sell to any one but the Federal Government or Virginia; but these not coming forward, he is now willing to accept his $200,000 from the Ladies of Virginia, assisted as they are by those of other States, and the eloquence of Edward Everett.—Mr. W. has already made a good thing of selling the timber off these hallowed acres, for canes, snuff-boxes, &c. As Mr. W. is not a Yankee, we suppose there is nothing to be said; but if he only were a Yankee, he would only be esteemed an intensely mean one. Still, a man may "do what he likes with his own," and those who don't like what he does are at perfect liberty to grumble.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The spring term of our Public Schools commenced yesterday; and tho' the weather was inclement, the streets muddy and the rain fell fast, the attendance of scholars was unprecedently large. This was especially the case with the new Seventh Ward School, which, under the superintendence of Mr. MCKINDLEY, Mr. COE, and Miss OSGOOD, the respective Principals of the High Schools, Intermediate and Primary Departments, has become wonderfully popular, both with parents and children.—At the opening of the Schools, yesterday morning, there must have been nearly four hundred children in attendance, all anxious for admission.

There were many more indeed, than the School could accommodate, and the necessity for more room, was made apparent.

We hear that others of our Public Schools were equally thronged at the opening yesterday. We hail this as a most encouraging sign; and hope that it will stimulate both Teachers and School Commissioners to increased efforts. The City has dealt liberally by our Public Schools, and all connected with them should strive to repay this liberality by making them, as far as possible, model institutions of their kind.

A FINE SAFE.—At the "Badger State Safe Works," we saw, yesterday, a very beautiful safe which had just been completed for J. B. Martin, Esq., of this city. It is a large and very elegantly finished one, its weight being 3,600 lbs., and the size of the inside about three feet wide, by four feet seven inches in height, and proportionably deep. It is furnished with shelves, drawers, pigeon holes, and in fact all the conveniences of a small office. It is not necessary for us here to enumerate the good qualities of the Badger safes, for they are already well known to most of our people. The locking apparatus of these safes, is not their least interesting feature. To one unacquainted with it the key would no more facilitate him in opening it, than the commonest piece of iron he might pick up upon the street. It must be studied and thoroughly understood, else the most skillful mechanic would fail to unlock it, and as to a burglar opening one of these safes, there is not the slightest possibility of his being able to do so, without cutting the safe to pieces; and that would take considerably more time than gentlemen of this profession can usually devote to one job successfully. The Badger Safes have often been severely tested as to their capacity to withstand the devouring element, fire, and they have always proved amply worthy of the high praise which has been bestowed upon them for their security against the ever imminent dangers of a conflagration. We take particular pleasure in noticing these safes favorably, not altogether on account of their well known merits, but because they are the production of home enterprise and skill, which deserves every encouragement.

FOUND DROWNED.—On Sunday afternoon, the body of a man named August Breitstein was found in the lake at the mouth of the old Harbor by a fisherman. The body was examined by the city physician and no marks of violence were found upon it, so that it was considered unnecessary to hold an inquest upon it. Breitstein was last seen on the 24th of February; when missed search was made for him, but to no effect. He was a German laborer, about 35 years of age. He leaves a wife and one child, who have been in very destitute circumstances since his death. It is supposed by some he fell into the river and was drowned, and the body afterwards carried to the lake by the current. Others, however, say that he had been troubled about religious matters, his wife and he being of opposite persuasions, and that he probably committed suicide.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—Luther Huntsley was sent up for the term of 30 days for drunkenness.

Dorothea Wagner was arrested for committing an assault and battery upon Frederica Wagner, but was dismissed for want of prosecution.

DIED FROM THE EFFECTS OF BAD WHISKEY.—A woman named Higgins was found dead in a shanty in the Third Ward yesterday morning. A post mortem examination was made on the body by Dr. Nauman, who certified to the woman's death having been produced by excessive use of liquor. The woman was an unfortunate, abandoned creature, who was always drunk when out of jail.

A NORTH-EAST STORM.

Heavy Rain—Vessels Ashore.

The North-East storm which set in here, Saturday morning, lasted without intermission, all thro' that day, Sunday and yesterday, though its force was well nigh spent, by last evening. The wind blew steadily, and at times, violently from the North-East, shifting occasionally to the Eastward, or South of East, and the rain fell in torrents. A tremendous sea was running on the Lake, and broke furiously upon the pier head of the New, as well as the Old Harbor, and on the beach of our Bay. Both Sunday and Saturday nights must have been hard ones for our Lake Marine, and we fear that we shall hear of numerous disasters. The record for this port will be found below. As yet, we do not hear of any loss of life.

Several propellers and vessels came in during the blow, and quite a fleet now lies wind bound in our river. We have not seen the water in our river so high, for a long time, as it was yesterday. The rain, though over abundant, was much needed, both in city and country. It has filled our cisterns, and washed our streets, and falling upon the newly sown grain, will, with a little sunshine, soon quicken that into life. After so thorough a soaking, the first bright, warm day, will give a wonderful start to vegetation.

VESSELS ASHORE NEAR THIS PORT, &c.—There are five vessels ashore within sight of this city. They are all south of the old harbor, except one, which is between the old and new harbors, high and dry on the beach. Some of them are in a critical position, but it is thought they will all be got off without serious damage, as they are lying upon a sandy beach, too high to be affected much by the waves. Those ashore, as near as we can ascertain, are the brig Mechanic, schooners C. Harrison, Magic, Stella, and Planet. They all went ashore attempting to make the old harbor. The want of a proper light at the Straight Cut entrance, is a great inconvenience to mariners, and, to say the least, a reprehensible neglect on the part of those in authority.

Of the vessels on shore, the Brig Mechanic, is from Chicago, laden with grain, bound down.—The Magic and Stella, are both light, and from Chicago, bound to the North for lumber. The Planet is from Black River, and was bound for Chicago; the Harrison, is from this port, and was in the lumber business. She is also light. The Magic, is damaged to some extent and leaking. The Propeller Ogdensburgh, arrived off the Harbor on Sunday night, but did not attempt to run in, there being no light on the pier. She lay outside the Harbor all night, and came in yesterday morning. She came near having a collison with one of the vessels, that run ashore during the night.

Among the vessels that succeeded in getting in safe are the Jo Mills of Manitowoc, from Chicago, bound down with grain; the Live Oak, also from Chicago, with wheat, for the lower lakes; the Two Charlies, bound to Manitowoc, and the Jane Louisa, all light, besides some others, the names of which we could not learn. At a late hour last night, the waves were still rolling high, but the wind had calmed down a little.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST THE POLICE.—We published yesterday a complaint made against the Police, by Darby Carney, of the Third Ward.—To-day we give the other side of the story, being the affidavit of the two Policemen who made the arrest. The order to clear the space in front of the window where the votes were received, came from Ald. JENNINGS, one of the Inspectors.

Affidavit.

MILWAUKEE COUNTY, } ss.

John McCarty and David Coughlin, being duly sworn, say that on the day of the last charter election, they were detailed to keep order at the Third Ward polls;—that in the afternoon of that day, Darby Carney and others crowded into the enclosure where the polls were kept; one of the Inspectors of the election called out to have the polls cleared, when they, as officers, directed such persons to leave the enclosure, as required by the Inspector; they all left as requested, except Carney, who stated that he would not go out for any d—d man, and became very noisy; they then proceeded to remove him from the enclosure, when he was subsequently taken into custody by the Chief of Police, who came up at that time; further state that on the evening before election they, in the presence of the whole police force, received orders from the Chief of Police, as they have on every election day, not in any way to electioneer, or interfere with the election, but simply to attend to their duties as policemen, under penalty of being discharged.

Subscribed and sworn to this 12th day of April, 1858, before me, { J. McCARTY, D. COUGHLIN.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We have never known any other medicine to win as large a share of public confidence in so short a time as this has done. It has not been more than a year since we first heard of it, and it now stands at the head of all remedies of the kind. We have never used it ourselves, having had no occasion, as our "crown of glory" not only as yet retains its original color, but gets more so—but some of our friends have, and we have never known it to fail in restoring the hair to its original color. We advise such as are becoming premature gray to give the "Restorative" a trial.—Chester (Ill.) Herald.

ALMOST A BAD BREAK DOWN.—Yesterday morning, between three and four o'clock, the Red Warehouse, on the north side of Walker's Point Bridge, settled a little on one side which caused some of the heavy timbers to give way, and it is thought the immense weight of flour and wheat in the building, would have crushed it down, but for the beams having been securely propped up before much damage was done. Had the cross timbers given way, the building would no doubt have been ruined and its contents precipitated into the river. A boy who slept in the warehouse, was aroused by the crackling noise of the overstrained timbers, and went immediately for Mr. Martin. The sinking of this warehouse, it is thought, was caused by the water having worn away part of the foundation.

COMMERCIAL.

Milwaukee Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, MILWAUKEE, April 13, 1858.

Received by M. & M. R. R., April 12—670 bbls flour, 2,665 bus wheat, 60 bus oats, 118 bus corn, 107 bus potatoes, 9,520 lbs hides, 2 cars stone.

By Mil. & Hor. R. R.—1,340 bus wheat, 1,000 lbs hams.

Receipts were light, yesterday, and little doing in our market. Strictly extra samples of wheat were in good demand. No. 1, however, was duller, and there was no sale for common lots. The storm greatly affected business generally.

WHEAT—Shipments 45,200 bush, receipts 4,065. We quote extra club in demand at 65a67c, No. 1 62a64c, and common dull at 61a62c. Red and white winter in fair request at 70a90c.

FLOUR—Shipments 2,000 bbls, receipts 670. Holders firm, and prices unchanged.

FREIGHTS—There was little doing in freights, yesterday. The schooner Thornton takes wheat and flour to Oswego at 12½ and 45c.

RYE—Is scarce and wanted at 48@50c. Receipts very small.

BARLEY—Receipts heavy, and dull at 35@40c from common to bright lots.

OATS—Coming in freely, and selling readily at 25@26c from the track.

CORN—Nominal at 30@35c in the ear, and 30@37c shelled.

BEANS—Quiet at 62½c for best.

TIMOTHY SEED—Receipts smaller and demand fair, at $1,25@1,50 for best quality.

POTATOES—Are coming in in large quantities, and are dull at 75c.

EGGS—Also in large supply, and very moderate request at 8@10.

BUTTER—There is a moderate enquiry for good firkin at 12½@14c, and for roll at 15c.

PORK—Dressed hogs are still coming in, in small quantities, and find ready sale at $5,75@6 for home consumption.

HIDES—Receipts have been large for the week, and demand good at 4½@5½ for green, and 10@12 for dry.

SHEEP PELTS—In good request, at 12½@75c.

WOOD—More plenty, at $2,50@3 for mixed, and $3,25@4 for best hard wood.

The weather, yesterday, was about as unfavorable as it well could be for business. A fierce rain storm raged all Sunday night and yesterday, and the clouds still looked angry last evening.

ERRATUM.—In our table of shipments, yesterday, we had 1,700 bbls of flour shipped to Chicago, which we find was an error. It should have been four barrels, instead of barrels of flour.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, April 12.

FLOUR—We quote at $3,25a3,50. For very choice brands holders are asking higher figures.

WHEAT—Quiet. Buyers were offering 60c to store freely. Three or four car loads and 2,000 bu brought these figures, and a boat load 62c afloat.

CORN—A choice article afloat brings 42c. There is but little doing.

OATS—Firmer, owing to the large shipment Saturday, amounting to about 40,000 bus. We quote at 25a26c.

BARLEY—Quiet at 30a40c.

FREIGHTS—Holders firmer. No charters reported.—Journal of last evening.

LATEST NEWS!

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH

Later from Utah.

ST. LOUIS, April 12.

Col. Stevens' train arrived here yesterday from Santa Fe in advance of the mails. He reports that Capt. Marcy left the camp ground from Fort Union, the 18th ult. He had about 1200 animals, mostly mules. There was an abundant supply of forage and plenty of provisions for the men. He had 150 regular troops and the same number of mountaineers and herdsmen with him, and expressed his entire confidence on being able to reach Camp Scott without difficulty.

He intended to travel slowly so as to keep the animals in good condition, but expected to join Johnson before the first of May.

An express from Fort Leavenworth, with orders to General Garland to furnish money and a strong escort, met on the 18th, sixty miles east of Santa Fe, a large number of Indians, all of whom expressed their desire for peace with the Americans. The grass was growing rapidly.

Fearful Hurricane—Great Loss of Life.

ST. LOUIS, April 13.

The Republican learns that on the 27th of March a hurricane passed over Bentonville, Arkansas, blowing down nearly every house in town, killing 25 persons, and wounding a great number.

Execution.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 9.

Anderson and Richards were hung together at twenty-five minutes before 12 o'clock to-day.—Both were penitent, calm and composed.

Anderson died without a struggle, and prayed at the gallows for himself and Richards, but made no speech.

Anderson's confession, written by himself, is a thrilling narrative.

They murdered Mrs. Garber and Mrs. Ream for the purpose of robbing them of twelve and a half cents to get a pint of whiskey. Both were drunk at the time.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

Mr. Peter Besancon, in a card, published this morning, says that Secretary Thompson and himself have been for years on friendly terms until yesterday's occurrence.

That meeting then was of a friendly nature, and the affair was unpremeditated; the result of a misunderstanding, and no one can regret the difficulty more than himself. He adds that he has often visited the Department and was armed only for self-defence, in anticipation of an attack from another quarter.

CAMP SCOTT, U. T., March 1.

One who has not been accustomed to this climate could hardly believe the rapid changes which it undergoes. When I wrote to you my last letter I had to thaw my ink, and with difficulty only could I keep myself from freezing inside my tent. Now, I am writing without fire and am very comfortable. Were it not for the lack of verdure in our landscape, and the mountains, apparently within a stone's throw of us, whose tops and sides are groaning under their heavy mantle of snow, and the ice yet bridging over our little stream, I would think I was writing this on a summer's day, and under a tropical sun. To-day is really a spring day—warm, lovely and pleasant without. The thermometer marks 56 degrees above zero. This opens well for March. It is an old saying, that when March "comes in like a lamb it goes out like a lion." If this holds good here, we are yet to be reminded that we are still in the Rocky Mountains. The old mountain men, however, say that the winter is over. One of them told me that he saw, the other day, grass growing on the sunny side of the elevations. The snow is all gone from the valleys and lower altitudes where the sun could shine. About two weeks ago the weather changed suddenly from cold to warm, and has continued warm ever since; but the mountain streams have not yet begun to flow.

The beef stored away for our supplies until spring has commenced to thaw. Fears are entertained that much of it will spoil if this warm spell continues. But efforts are being made to preserve it by surrounding it with ice. If this project fails, we have about six hundred head of cattle on the hoof that can be slaughtered at pleasure to supply the demand. Six hundred more can be had from Platte Bridge early in the spring.

Divers rumors are afloat in camp concerning the attitude of the Mormons in Salt Lake. But we have no reliable information from that quarter. One of these rumors says that the Mormons are all leaving the city and seeking refuge in the mountains. Another states that they are sending only their women and children to the mountains and outside villages for security while the fighting population are to remain and prepare to give us a hot and hospitable reception in the spring. These rumors are brought in by Indians who may be interested in behalf of the Mormons to circulate them.

No tidings have reached us from Capt. Marcy, whose return from Taus, New Mexico, is expected in April, or sooner. Neither have we heard from the "Rangers," under Ficklin, who left more than two months ago to go the "Flat Head" nation for Indian ponies. His return is also expected soon.

The expedition alluded to in my last article, as having gone to reinforce Captain Marcy, has been so fortunate as to reclaim forty-four battery horses, which were supposed to have been stolen from the army last fall. These horses were brought into camp three days ago by some Utah Indians. On being questioned where the horses were found, these Indians would only reply,—"Away off yonder, away off—many heap of sleeps from here." It is supposed they were reclaimed somewhere in the Utah Valley. They are in fine condition.

The disposition of the troops is about the same as when I wrote last, except that Major Sibley has moved his company about ten miles below us, and encamped on Black's Fork. Lieut. Hight has moved his company of dragoons from Smith's Fork and joined Major Sibley. It became necessary to station these two companies of dragoons there, for the purpose of protecting the animals that are to be herded there.

Two days ago intelligence came to us that the body of a man was found hanging to a tree near Smith's Fork. Some dragoons found the body thus suspended, cut it down and buried it. A jury was ordered to hold an inquest on the body for the purpose of ascertaining the particulars of his death and identifying the man. Squire Burr, (son of the surveyor general of this territory), Marshal Dotson, Surgeon Bailey, of the United States army, were dispatched to Smith's Fork, with an order to examine the body and proceed with the coroner's inquest. They returned yesterday and reported their inability to find the grave; Lieut. Hight had moved his camp, and the soldiers who buried the body were not on hand to point out the grave. I understand the party will be sent back again, and that the soldiers who found the body will accompany them.

It is not known positively who the man was that was hung. Those who found him report that he had red whiskers and a mark, as if from a cut on his right cheek. His skull was knocked in behind. This shows that he did not hang himself. The body had the appearance of having been hanging there some months. His eyes were eaten out by the crows, and his face was so picked and mangled that nothing more was observed which would aid in identifying the individual. There are, however, strong reasons for believing the body to be that of Dr. George W. Hickman, who was released from Col. Alexander's camp last fall. Dr. Hickman, had a red goatee on the chin, and a whitish mustache. He had a scar on his right cheek.

A few days after Dr. Hickman left our camp, it was whispered around among the mountain men here, "that he had not been able to make the connection," meaning that he had been cut off before he could join the Mormons then at Fort Bridger. Dr. Hickman, as well as his brother, the notorious "Bill" Hickman, had had much to do in the outrages committed against the resident mountain men. His clique, headed by "Bill" Hickman, had driven them from their homes, had stolen their horses and cattle, and had remorsely appropriated to their own use much of their property. It was stated as a fact, that the mule Dr. Hickman rode out of our camp when he was released was stolen by "Bill" H. from one of our guides, now present in our camp.

It is thus rendered highly probable that the dead body is that of Dr. H., who was mudered to gratify the malice, which all the mountaineers bear, not only to the Mormons generally, but particularly to "Bill" Hickman, the doctor and their clan. Some think, on the contrary, that this is the body of some person returning to the States from our camp or California, who was murdered for his money.

But, no matter whose body it is, every means will be used to ferret out the perpetrator of the deed, and bring him to condign punishment.—By the next mail I shall be able to give you more particulars concerning this inhuman affair. The body will be dissected by a surgeon, with a view of identifying it.

It was not known, until last week that anything more could be done by the agents of Messrs. Russell & Waddle, contractors to freight for the army here, or that another disclosure of the doings of this firm could be made which could surprise anybody here. We all know, and you in the States have heard, of the inefficiency and mismanagement of the agents of this firm; but no one could ever have dreamed that, while freighting for the general government, and receiving pay for it, they were also freighting for our enemies. It is even so. I doubt if anything else which the future may reveal concerning this firm can now astonish any one. Last week, on examing the wagons that Mr. Rupp, their agent, packed at Fort Bridger, there were found in an interior wagon one thousand pounds of powder, and other merchandise, directed to Eldridge, the agent for the Mormon church, with "For X. Y." underneath. "X. Y." means the church of Mormon!

This powder and this merchandise Russell & Waddle, through their agent, Mr. Rupp, carted all the way across the plains for the "enemies of the government," which employed Russell & Waddle to freight provisions for the army it has sent here to put down the Mormon rebellion! Whether Russell & Waddle knew that this powder was coming, and authorized it, I am not able to say. If they did sanction it, they can never outlive the disgrace which must legitimately fall upon them for furnishing powder to a people who are every hour preparing, and waiting the time, to send their leaden balls through the hearts of loyal American citizens! Let us hope the gentlemen of the firm knew nothing of this—that it was the act of their agent, Mr. Rupp. We would gladly believe that Russell & Waddle would never become a party to any such transaction. But they must, to some extent, be responsible for the acts of their principal agent. However, we think their agent, Mr. Rupp, would not scruple to do such a thing, even on his own sole responsibility. He disappeared from here between two days, and forfeited his bond of $500 to appear as a witness, at the next term of the court to be held by Chief Justice Eckles, against some Mormons who were to be indicted for treason.—This act, of itself, justifies the prevalent opinion here, that he was mysteriously leagued in some way, with the rebels.

A redeemed Mormon lady, who has sought the protection of the army here, told me, the other day, that Brigham Young threatens, in case the President does not "back out" from the position he has taken in his message, that he will send his "destroying angels" on a mission of incendiarism, to burn St. Louis, Keokuk, Chicago, New York, and even the capital of the United States. These cities, and many others, are to be fired simultaneously. And furthermore, his followers in the States are to volunteer in the new volunteer regiments to be raised this spring, and are to come out here for the purpose of spying inside of our own camp, and inciting the soldiers to mutiny; and in case of a battle, to desert our ranks at a given signal, and to take the side of the enemy. This bravado is in perfect harmony with his sermons, and the pulpit spoutings of Kimball.

We are awaiting anxiously the February mail from the States. Unless the President sends positive instructions to Col. Johnston to remain here until reinforcements reach us, this "little" army, as it is styled by our sympathizing friends in the States, will be in Salt Lake City by the middle of June. It will move from here in April, and if a battle is to be fought, it will be decided soon. I am assured of one thing, namely, that it is not the intention of Col. Johnston to retrace a step which his army has taken, or is to take.

The Hurricane at Madeira.

We are permitted to publish the following extract from a private letter from an officer of the U. S. frigate Cumberland:

FUNCHAL, MADEIRA, March 6, 1858.

* * I was awaked in the morning by feeling an unusual motion in the ship, and thought we must be at sea, but found that the wind, blowing fresh on shore, had raised a heavy sea. The barometer going down very rapidly, indicated bad weather, but the wind was just from the quarter which would prevent our slipping, and therefore we prepared to ride out the gale. I was taking a morning nap, when one of the officers came to my room, and said he had never yet found himself in a situation of such imminent peril, whereupon I went on deck.—Certainly, I had never seen anything like it in my sea experiences. There were a number of other vessels caught like ourselves in the roadstead, and I was wondering how long they could possibly ride it out, with their simple anchors, when I suddenly saw the distance between one of them and us, lessening. At first I could not believe it possible that we were the victims, but the orders in quick succession to let go our anchors, showed me in a moment that we had parted our cable. In the meantime we were drifting right on too Loo rock, which was covered with foam. A brig lay right astern of us, and down we bore with our restless weight upon the devoted vessel; one heavy surge and away went her jibboom, and we expected to see her go to pieces, but, providentially, she sheered off, and we passed her, just grazing her sides. Still we drifted and we felt that the crisis had come. I knew that if we struck Loo rock with such a sea on, not a man in all human probability, colud escape. We brought up at last with other anchors.

Soon after we saw the other three vessels go ashore; two broken into a thousand pieces the instant they struck; the third sent high and dry on the beach. The crew of the last were all lost, but one little boy, whose fear made him stick to the vessel. I was standing on the gun deck, when the first lieutenant sang out to the captain, "Jib-boom and flying jib boom gone, sir!" "Let them go!" he answered, and continued his conversation. The hurricane increasing, a consultation was held as to the necessity of throwing some of the guns overboard and cutting away the masts, and it was decided to throw over four of the forward guns and have everything ready to cut away if she began to drag. Life buoys were prepared to float the men ashore, in case we should be so fortunate as to strike the beach. The sea exceeded anything any one on board had ever seen before. While standing on deck, we saw the little brig begin to drift. Sorrowfully we saw her going to what seemed her certain fate, when she let go her starboard anchor, but soon began to drift again; but just as she got among the breakers she made sail, and a fortunate shift of the wind reached her, and weathering one of the points of the island, she made her escape. So things continued till nightfall, the barometer still falling, and the hurricane increasing every moment. I went below for a few moments, when some one sung out that we had parted another cable. Feeling that it was all over with us, I took off my heavy boots and made what other preparation I could for going ashore. I found, however, that we were still riding by our three anchors. The wind now began to shift a little to the westward, to the relief of every one, for it had become apparent that a few hours more continuance of the gale from the same quarter, the sea would become so powerful that we must be driven ashore or go down at our anchors. About 7 o'clock P. M., the wind came out due west, the sea began to go down, the barometer rose, and all felt that we had escaped the greatest peril of our lives.—St. Louis Democrat.

Important Notice.

But one solution to the mysterious office performed by my Electric Oil, that I or any other Physiologist can thus far discover, and that is its probable incorporation with the Electric or Nervous Fluid of the human body. This is more obvious from the sudden change in the nerves of sensation, (those little monitors of suffering,) noticed by all who use my genuine Electric Oil, from 39 South Eighth street, near Chestnut. It is a most important discovery, as the people will soon know, from actual experience. It relieves suffering as does no other known combination, and that, suddenly. MILWAUKEE:

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 13

The Spring Elections.

The Spring Elections in this State have, with few exceptions, terminated disastrously for the so-called "Democratic" party. Mr. BUCHANAN'S Lecompton policy has fairly broken its back, and made it an easy prey to the opposition. We have already published the results in a large number of the principal towns and cities of the State, and this morning give "a few more of the same sort."

MANITOWOC village elects the entire Republican ticket by decisive majorities; CHARLES ESSLINGER, President, 168 majority; O. KOCH, Treasurer, 188 do., and S. W. SMITH, (the wide awake editor of the Tribune) Marshal by 164 majority.

In the town of Manitowoc the same party carried the day handsomely; the majority for A. W. PRESTON, chairman, being 99, and on the rest of the ticket ranging from 75 to 126.

OZAUKEE, as we have already stated, elects the Peoples' ticket, by nearly 300 majority over the Democratic do.; M. KILGORE, for chairman, beating H. J. SCHULTIES, 334 votes.

WHITEWATER (Walworth county) elects the entire Republican ticket with a single exception (School Superintendent) by large majorities.—For chairman of the Board, R. O.CONNOR, (Rep.) received 285 votes and A. H. SCOVILLE, (Dem.) 173.

PALMYRA, (Jefferson county) elects the Republican ticket; N. F. SMITH, for chairman, receiving 274 majority.

JEFFERSON, in the same county, elects portions of each ticket, Peoples' and Democratic; N. C. HURLBUT, (Rep.) being chosen Chairman by 8 majority, and A. T. COLBURN, Treasurer, by 164 majority, and the Democrats carrying the rest.

BELOIT, town, elects the Republican ticket by 69 majority. The same is true of every Town in Old Rock, from which we have received returns, except Fulton, which has elected the democratic ticket.

LA GRANGE, (Walworth county) elects the entire Republican ticket by decisive majorities.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—Every Congressional District in Connecticut, at the recent election, gave a decisive Republican majority. This is a practical repudiation, by the people, of the Lecompton votes cast by those twin Connecticut Doughfaces, ARNOLD and BISHOP. The vote for Governor, in all but 16 towns, stands as follows:

Counties.	Buck'm.	Pratt.	Scatt.
Hartford (1 town wanting)	7,084	7,131	29
New Haven (complete)	6,635	6,107	116
N. London (3 t'ns wanting)	3,690	2,475	3
Fairfield (3 t'ns wanting)	4,138	3,857	2
Windham (3 t'ns wanting)	2,675	1,631	—
Litchfield (2 t'ns wanting)	4,004	3,569	—
Middlesex (complete)	2,468	2,633	24
Tolland (3 towns wanting)	1,391	1,236	—
Total (in all but 15 t'ns)	31,085	28,330	174
Buckingham's majority,		3,146.

The remaining towns will probably add about 100 to Mr. Buckingham's majority, which is the largest polled for any candidate for Governor for many years. The full vote will be near 70,000.

The Legislature is Republican by 2 to 1, in both branches.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION:—"Little Rhody" held her annual State election on Monday last, and, like New Hampshire, and Connecticut, gave a rousing verdict against the Administration.—The following is the vote for Governor by counties, only three towns to hear from:

	American Rep. Dyer.	Democratic. Potter.
Providence County,	4582	2057
Newort County,	1043	464
Kent County,	769	253
Washington County,	920	729
Bristol County,	208	119
	7522	3618

The Legislature is Republican by overwhelming majorities. In the whole State the Democrats elect only two Senators and four Representatives. A U. S. Senator in place of JAMES, (Dem.) is to be chosen by this Legislature; securing another gain for Freedom.

A CURIOUS HOAX BY AN IRISHMAN, ON THE LONDON PRESS.—The London papers lately had, for several days in succession, accounts of what purported to be a convention of Italians in that city in favor of Louis Napoleon. Distinguished names were given of those present, and speeches put into their mouths, a manifesto against tyrannicide and in favor of a constitutional monarchy in Italy was issued, and an appeal to the refugees to join in the process against regicide. The Times paid eight pounds for the report, and noticed the convention in an elaborate leader, and all the other Dailies paid more or less for simultaneous copies of the same reports. The manifesto was forwarded to the French embassy and duly acknowledged, and the movement was favorably noticed in Parliament. After the affair had gone on for a week, and the public was getting interested, it was discovered that the whole thing was a hoax, and to add to the mortification of the London publishers, it was the work of a poor Irish scribbler, driven to the necessity of earning his bread by his genius. He wrote the whole thing, speeches, manifestoes and all, and did them so admirably that no one suspected that they were not genuine. Such a hoax would not be possible in this country, where the press relies on its own reporters for news.

"APRIL FOOL," IN ALBANY.—The Albany correspondent of the N. Y. Times says that on the First of April "Some person procured from the Governor's room the kind of paper on which his Excellency usually writes his letters. These were filled up generally with requests from the Governor that those to whom they were addressed would at once call at the Executive chamber I saw more than one of the Senate legislators fold up his specs, gather his papers, lock his drawer, and then go gravely down to the conference which his Excellency had invited. One of the most formal and reserved of all the Senate was first 'sold.' 'I swear,' is a common expression, and one that is not usually very forcible; but I thought it had an immense force, as the Senator gave it upon emerging from the Executive's room."

NEWSPAPERS A WIDOW'S RIGHT.—A Vermont Judge of Probate has incorporated it as a part of the law of his court, that the administrator must allow the widow the cost of a newspaper, she making her own selection from the common fund. The common law of America now recognizes the newspapers as a family and individual necessity. It is classed with pigs and potatoes, cassimere and calico, a thing to be exempted—like the family bible, never to suffer from rapacious creditors, never to be parted with in the direst poverty.

THE LAKES OF MINNESOTA.—The St. Paul Minnesotian publishes a list of eighty-four of the lakes of Minnesota, which vary in size from one to thirty miles in length. There are many more lakes in the Territory, but these were omitted from the list because they had no names.

MONROE, GREEN COUNTY.—We learn from the Sentinel, of the 8th inst., that the town election in Monroe resulted in a handsome Republican triumph; the majorities on the Republican ticket ranging from 50 to 125. F. H. WEST, for Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, received 284 votes to 269 for S. P. CONDEE.

The New Common Council.

Mayor PRENTISS has notified the two Boards of Common Council to meet together, in joint convention, at 2 o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, to consider the subject of the various city appointments. There are numerous applicants for the different city offices, and each competitor, as is not unnatural, thinks his chances and claims the best. The present incumbents desire, for the most part, to retain their places; and are unwilling to have it thought that the verdict of the People, on Tuesday last, had any special reference to them. In this, however, we think that they mistake public sentiment. The vote at the Charter Election indicated unmistakably the wish of the People for a general change in the City Officers. The prevailing opinion seemed to be that this process was essential to a thorough renovation and reform; and the new Common Council, in our judgment, would disappoint that sentiment and fail to reflect the popular will, if they did not elect new men in place of those now holding these offices.

In the selection of their successors there is but one safe rule. They should be chosen with sole reference to their character and capacity. No idle, inefficient, or untrustworthy men should be saddled upon the city, or supported out of the Treasury, merely because of alleged services in behalf of the People's ticket, by themselves, or their sponsors. What the people expect, and what their votes on Tuesday last called for, is AN HONEST, EFFICIENT AND ECONOMICAL CITY ADMINISTRATION, and this can only be secured by putting the right men in the right places. A decided majority of the Common Council were elected on the People's ticket, in opposition to the regular party nominees. Every man, whether Alderman, or Councillor, who was nominated and elected on this ticket, is honorably bound thereby to discard party considerations in the choice of City Officers, and to cast his vote for the best men. There is no lack of competent and reliable men to be found, to fill the subordinate posts in the City Administration, and upon such alone should the appointments be conferred.—Let the Common Council do this, and they will have well seconded the Retrenchment and Reform movement so successfully inaugurated on Tuesday last.

THE RECORD.

The Members of Congress from the Free States who have persistently voted not to allow the People of Kansas to say decisively by a majority vote whether they will accept and come into the Union, under the Lecompton Constitution, or rejecting this, frame another which shall be satisfactory to them, are the following:

Plant a Tree.

Plant it anywhere; by the side of the road, in the garden, in the yard, or on the hill-side, in any place where it can take root and grow.—This is just the place for planting and transplanting trees, and we hope every person who has an opportunity will plant at least one.

Nothing has contributed more to beautify our streets than the pleasant trees which adorn so many of them. There is still, however, much to be done in this way, and we trust that our people will not let the present season slip by without planting shade trees in those parts of our city where they not already. To do so, will not only greatly add to the beauty of our fair city, but considerably enhance the value of property.

It has been said that the person who plants a tree becomes a public benefactor. This is so; and not only is he a public benefactor in the present, but he is doing good for the generations to come after him. Nothing adds so much to the general beauty of the country as shade and fruit trees. They are also useful as well as beautiful. They not only furnish food to please and improve the human system, but they furnish a grateful and pleasant shelter to protect the weary traveler and the jaded citizen from the scorching rays of the sun.

Trees also have a moral effect on the mind.—Who is there that has not felt the glow of happiness and joy to be experienced in sylvan shades? Each twig and leaf and blossom seems pregnant with happiness as they bask in the smiles of their Creator, and by some magnetic influence this happiness is imparted to the beholder. The little birds congregate in umbrageous shades, to pour out their songs of thanksgiving and praise to Him whose beneficence formed the grove and the forest; and no one possessing a tithe of the soul of a man can listen to them without experiencing a sentiment of good, and carrying with him better and kindlier feelings towards his fellow beings.

Then plant a tree. If you do not live to reap any benefit from it some one else will. Plant a tree, and when you are slumbering quietly in your grave the monument of your goodness will remain behind, to shower its blessings on those who come after you, and you will have left a token that you lived to some purpose.

THE CITY OF GREEN BAY.—This ancient burgh held its Charter Election last week. There were no party nominations, but plenty of candidates. Mr. BURLEY FOLLETT, a prominent business man, was elected Mayor; P. KLAUS, Treasurer; PAUL FOX and O. B. GRAVES, Assessors; JOSHUA WHITNEY, Superintendent; and D. AGOG, JAS McGUIRE, A. BURKARD, JAS. MORTON, A. KIMBALL, P. PARISH, Aldermen.

LETTER FROM THE UTAH ARMY.—We have been favored with the following extract of a letter from an officer of the army, dated Camp, near Echo Canon, 65 miles N. E. of Great Salt Lake City, Feb. 7, 1858. The writer says:

"Our little army of 1700 rank and file are now at this point. It consists of the 10th and 5th regiments of infantry, only partly filled; Phelps Light Battery of 8 guns, 12 pounders, several mortars and howitzers for throwing shells, and the 2nd regiment of dragoons.

"General Cumming and all the civil staff of Judges, &c., &c., are also here, all blockaded by snow and ice. We expect to move by the 10th of March. Our advices are that Brigham Young is strongly fortified with 8000 troops, and that we shall meet a warm reception. Our little band are, however, exceedingly anxious for the contest. That the Mormons will fight, and fight hard, too, there is not the slightest doubt. But our siege battery, flying artillery, well drilled dragoons, heavy infantry, brave men with light hearts, and last though not least, our love for pretty women, and the prospect of bringing them back to the path of rectitude and virtue, will overcome all difficulties, make our entrance to the city sure, and teach Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball, Orson Pratt, and their followers, a lesson they will not soon forget. Write to me at Great Salt Lake City, and I shall be sure to get the letters."—Boston Traveller.

Sad Calamity in Jefferson Co.—Burning of a whole Family—Heroic Conduct of a Jailor's Wife.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 5, 1858.

The inhabitants of this place have had two rather exciting topics on their tongues for the past few hours, the first relating to a shocking affair in the adjoining town of Leroy; the second affair not so shocking in our own neighborhood.

The first is, as I learn by actual personal investigation, somewhat thus: A farmer named Daniel Comstock has been living with his four little daughters, Mary, Maria, Colona and Cora, alone in his house, which is located fourteen or fifteen miles from here, on what is known as the Philadelphia Road. His wife had been absent some two months in Auburn, under medical treatment. Last (Sunday) night, about 9 o'clock, it was discovered that the residence of Mr. Comstock was in flames, and before assistance could be rendered, it was burned to the ground, together with its five inmates! It would seem from the position of affairs as I found them today, on the ground, that Mr. C. and his four daughters (the oldest of whom was only ten years,) were all asleep together in one bedroom in a corner of the house.

The first indication they had of the fire was, probably, not until the building was full of flames, for it is apparent the fire "took" from a keg of ashes in the wood house, which is some distance from the bedroom in question and, in burning its way to the bedroom, it must have enveloped everything in flames. Rushing in the darkness forth from the bedroom, the frantic children flew in different directions, blinded by the smoke and flames, while the unnatural father, who loved his money more than his offspring, ran up stairs to get his box of valuables, while he might have easily opened the bedroom window at the outset, and placed himself and children beyond danger—for the bedroom was on the ground floor. But, alas for human frailty!—his miserly habits ruled him, and his blackened bones and ashes were found, after the fire, lying across the box in the cellar where he had fallen.

As if this affair were not sufficiently shocking in itself, we are compelled to turn to the poor wife, who, away in Auburn, is contemplating the happiness of her little ones, and the prospect of a speedy reunion with them! Before I left that vicinity, to return to Watertown, to-night, a letter was placed in my hands, which had just been received from the poor woman, addressed to her husband, and dated at Auburn, last Friday. I extract for you these portions:

MY DEAR ONES AT HOME: You will all be surprised, and I trust, like me, you will be joyfully surprised, when I tell you that I am coming home next week. * * * I should have started this morning, if I had an answer to the letter that I sent you on Tuesday last. I feel as if I cannot possibly wait till it comes. *

I am not strong enough to endure much, though I am gaining. I am very much excited with the prospect of getting home; hope I shall get calm before I start. I think I see you all looking very happy, my dear children, when pa reads this to you. Be good children, and I hope before another Friday noon to be with you. Your affectionate mother, A. M. C.

Alas! alas! for this poor woman, when she learns the fate of her "dear children," and realizes that after all she is alone in the world!—May God pity and strengthen her.

The second topic of which I spoke is more agreeable to dwell upon. Early on Sunday morning, three prisoners named Wilson Eddy, Missie and Ward, by feigning the sickness of one of their number, got the jailor at this place, Mr. Baker in their power, gagged and bound him, and locked him in a cell. This done, they robbed him of his money and the keys of the prison, and were calmly taking their leave when they were "brought all up standing" by beholding the jailor's little wife pointing at them through a railing a loaded revolver, and calmly informing them that she would put a bullet through the first man who attempted to come forward. A conversation something like this followed:

Prisoner—The devil you will! You don't know how to shoot it.

Mrs. Baker—Try it and see if you like it! I have been practicing with this pistol for the past few days, and I promise you I will kill the first man who comes forward.

Prisoner—Well, if that's your game, we'll be quits with you. Now, take your choice, young woman—either let us pass out in peace, or submit to have your husband's brains knocked out against the walls of the jail. Which do you like best? Perhaps that won't be gay, nor nothing, just to see him laying out there cold and stiff, with his brains laying around. Ha? ha!—d—d pretty picture, ain't it? D—d pretty wife you are, ain't ye, to get your husband killed. Come, now what d'ye say? Let us out and it'l be all right—wont ye? [And the speaker moved forward a step.]

Mrs. Baker—The first man who steps over that sill dies!

And there that brave woman held those men at bay for something like half an hour until help came, and they were driven into their cells. S

The Rise and Fall of the Lake Level.

The mysterious rise and fall of the level of the great Lakes has provoked the curiosity and occupied the attention of scientific men for many years. Among others Colonel Charles Whittlesey, of this city, has devoted much time and study to the elucidation of the subject, and from a pamphlet by him lying before us, we condense a few of the facts he has noted.

From constant and simultaneous observations by himself and others of the stage of water daily during a series of years, Colonel Whittlesey concludes that there are three kinds of fluctuations existing, which are due to distinct causes—the first being a general rise and fall extending through long periods of time, but without any regularity in the period; the second and annual rise and fall that occurs regularly within the period of each year, without reference to the general stage of water; and the third being a local, fitful, irregular oscillation, of a few inches to a few feet, not to be predicted; its period of oscillation being from three to five minutes, and which continues from one to twenty four hours.

The first mentioned kind of fluctuation is undoubtedly caused by the differences of the seasons acting through a long period over a large area. In short rivers, the effect of heavy rains is soon perceptible; in long streams like the Mississippi it is months before the inhabitants of the lower portion of the river perceive the rise of the water; in so long a line of rivers and large lakes as that from the head waters of Lake Superior to the mouth of the St. Lawrence, it would take years before the effects of a wet or a dry season could be perceptible. The greatest range of this kind of fluctuation between the most extreme high and low stage, determined by the yearly mean, is for Lake Erie, 4 feet 5 inches, and by the monthly mean is six feet. The extreme temporary difference from the highest known stage, June 25th, 1838, to the lowest known stage in February, 1819 is about seven feet.

From the registers in the possession of Col. Whittlesey, it appears that the popular belief of a seven years' rise and fall of level is erroneous. From 1796 to 1851 the fluctuations have been in periods ranging from three to nineteen years, but never once in a period of seven years.

With reference to the annual fluctuations, the time of high and low water varies in the different lakes. In Lake Erie, June is the high water month, almost without exception, and the months of February and March the low ones. This is accounted for by the feeding rivers discharging less in winter than in spring. With regard to the third, and as yet unaccounted for, fluctuation, Col. Whittelsey has only been enabled to give the result of long and careful observations. He rejects the "Barometric" theory which imputes the oscillations to the changes in the atmospheric pressure, and is inclined to look for electro-magnetic causes. In the course of several years' observations no wave was seen over two feet in height in stormy weather, and in calm weather one, to one and one-half feet. Among several hundred observations upon the time of the oscillation, the period of a complete movement from one reflux to another was in averrge four and one half minutes. The vertical range of the wave in the Lake was about four inches. It always comes in from the open sea in a line parallel with the shore. The pulsations are less regular in stormy and windy weather than when it is still, but they occur in all states of the atmosphere, and never advance other than parallel to the coast line, whatever be the direction of the wind. These oscillations have been observed in all the greater and less North American Lakes, and it is probable that observations on the sea coast would detect them there also. They are more frequent and prominent on the waters of Lake Superior than elsewhere. Colonel Whittlesey closes his paper by saying:

If there is a barometic wave in the atmospere corresponding to that in the water, it should, as it seems to me, be due to agencies that are seated on the land. In cloudy, and especially in foggy weather, the movements are most striking. The mountain ranges that approach the coast no doubt affect the electrical condition of the atmosphere. They condense its vapor, especially when winds sweep over their summits. The increase or diminution of vapor changes the quantity and the force of the electrical fluid. The presence or absence of the sun, which depends upon the degrees of cloudiness, produces the same effect. We observe every day that storms arise in this way, particularly in the afternoon of hot days; the atmosphere is agitated, lightning is produced, and rains fall. I think it not unphilosophical, therefore, to look in that direction for a solution of this question. To surmise that a vibratory motion is thus given to the water, or, more probably, to the atmosphere that rests upon the water and communicates with it, which movement is always to and from the general trend of the coast. This over local and limited spaces, would not be appreciable to the barometer, being rather an agitation within the atmospheric column than a change in its total weight.

The Death Bed of Benton.

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1858.

Colonel Benton is dying. His disease, cancer of the bowels, has made such progress, that he cannot survive much longer. He suffers extreme pain, and is exhausted to almost the last degree of physical prostration. But his mind is as clear and as powerful as ever, and the high, resolute, Roman spirit of the old statesman struggles with indomitable energy and fortitude against sickness and weakness and the awful presence of the King of Terrors. He dies in harness, working to the last for his country and mankind. An old and intimate friend from Missouri called upon him this morning. Benton was in bed, scarcely able to move hand or foot, and not able to speak much above a whisper. But he was hard at work, closing up his Abridgement of the Debates of Congress, which he has brought down to 1850 to the passage of the Missouri Compromise measures. He was dictating the closing chapter of the work. His daughter, Mrs. Jones, sitting beside the bed, received it, sentence by sentence, whispered in her ear, and repeated it aloud to her husband, who wrote it down. It was then read over to Col. Benton, and received his corrections, made with as much anxious particularity as if it were the maiden work of a young author.

Resting a few moments from his task, Colonel Benton entered into conversation with his Missouri friend. He told him that in reviewing the events of 1850 he was glad to find that the animosities of the past had died out in his heart, and he was not only ready but eager to do justice to his former rival stand opponents. He spoke with much feeling of Mr. Clay, to whose merits and services he had awarded the highest praise in what he was writing about the Compromise period of 1850. He dwelt particularly on the service, the great service, Mr. Clay had rendered to the Republic at that time by baffling and putting down the traitorous Secessionists of the South, who were seeking to destroy the Union and plunge the country into civil war for their own selfish and ambitious purposes.

The inspiration of this theme fired the languid blood and reanimated for a moment the failing frame of the dying patriot. In energetic whispers, he told his visitor that the same men who had sought to destroy the Republic in 1850 were at the bottom of this accursed Lecompton business. Among the greatest of his consolations in dying was the consciousness that the House of Representatives had baffled these treasonable schemers, and put the heels of the people on the neck of the traitors. Few events in our history had given him so much satisfaction as the defeat of Lecompton. He warmly praised the intrepid and incorruptible Douglas Democrats who had resisted the power and the wiles of a corrupt and deluded Administration.

In taking leave of his friend, Col. Benton said that, although there was much in his life that he regretted, he could honestly feel proud on his death bed of his devotion to his country, in whose service he had never been faithless or negligent.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Pencil Sketch of a Great Preacher.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal describes the manner and effect of Mr. Beecher's sermonizing, and some of the every-day habits of that distinguished preacher:

Henry Ward Beecher preaches in his church on each Wednesday night. The house is crowded, large as it is. I have written about nearly every public man in New York for the Journal except Mr. Beecher. I feel just now like penning a paragraph on his own account. Mr. Beecher is a peculiar man. Liked or disliked, he is the most popular in the State who occupies a pulpit. He has marked talent. He is bold, energetic, enthusiastic. His sermons are all marked ones. He has the same aim that professes to guide all that preach. He is not at all particular how he hits the mark, provided the blow finds its way home. Some parts of his sermon, if delivered by any one but himself, would be found tame. But the audience don't get away without some touch of his quality. Now a broad smile, like a flash of sunshine, glows on each face—now something like unto a loud laugh shakes the vast auditory like the winds of autumn among the dry leaves—then a hit like a thunderbolt makes the conscience quiver, like a ship struck with lightning—then an illustration holds the people in suspense, as the beauty, the fervor, the aptness of the simile become apparent—then a touch of pathos melts all to tears—and an appeal comes home for the sinner to turn to God and live, that at times is irresistible.

The manner of Mr. Beecher is the manner of the Short Boys. I speak this in no offensive sense. He looks like a pugilist. He sees his antagonist—he measures him—he has no idea of being floored. He stands squarely—he hits cautiously, but squarely, and boldly—till the hot contest comes on, and then all is light. And as the audience sympathizes with the speaker, the time passes—an hour, an hour and a half, and three quarters—for Mr. Beecher holds out often as long as this—and no one is weary. The plan of the sermon is after the order of Henry Ward Beecher. He is his own model. Like Nappoleon, when the Emperor of Austria called him an upstart because he did not fight according to rule, he points to the results of his ministry.—They furnish no mean testimony to the wisdom of his course.

Probably the best things that Mr. Beecher says are written—often they are read from the manuscript; then he repeats them when he pleases, and as often as he pleases—the next time with extemporaneous invective or assault, and their power is heard and felt. Mr. B. studies in the streets and by the way. If a new machine is invented and on exhibition, you will find him present. If a trial trip is to be made, you may not only look for Mr. Beecher, but you will find him down among the machinery, and he will know all that is worth knowing before he leaves. On the next Sunday the people will know all about it and its religious uses. The next literary address will be rich in illustrations, drawn from that sail down the bay, and when the merchants assemble on a festive occasion, and Mr. Beecher speaks, he will electrify them by figures drawn from their own business and calling, and they will be delighted and surprised that a parson can know so much of the world, and this will be given with a sonorous voice, a clear enunciation, a vehement delivery, in which the sweat will stand on the brow, the face be red with exertion and excitement, and the whole man carried away with the earnestness and sincerity of the commission he bears to the sons of men.—Such a man must succeed.

"ANOTHER VETERAN GONE."—An old African negro named Cæsar, fell into the river a day or two since and was drowned. Cæsar was a relic of by gone days. He belonged to nobody in particular, and went pretty much where he pleased. He is said to have been at least one hundred and twenty years old! Mr. Onesphore Bernard, Sr., one of our oldest citizens, and who is fully reliable—himself some 70 years of age—says he remembers, when a boy, that Cæsar was too old and infirm then to perform plantation labor.—Cæsar was, without doubt, our oldest inhabitant.
—West Baton Rouge Sugar Planter.

BELGIUM EMIGRATION.—We are informed that letters have been received from New York, stating that 500 Belgians had just landed at that port, all of whom are destined to Green Bay.—Other parties, we hear, will soon follow—Green Bay Advocate.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A farmer, named Christian Lory, residing in Hellenville, some six miles east of this village, while in the act of placing a beam of timber across the frame of a new barn he had been raising, from some cause or other lost his balance, and fell to the ground, some considerable distance, upon his head, which resulted in death, after seven hous painful suffering. He leave a wife and two children to lament his untimely end.—Jeffersonian.

LYNCH LAW.—Robert J. Griffin, who was lately arrested at Paris, Ky., and confined in the Bourbon County jail, to await trial on a charge of having been engaged in setting fire to barns in that vicinity, was taken out of jail at two o'clock on Monday morning of last week, by a mob, and hung by the neck until he was dead.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We have never known any other medicine to win as large a share of public confidence in so short a time as this has done. It has not been more than a year since we first heard of it, and it now stands at the head of all remedies of the kind. We have never used it ourselves, having had no occasion, as our "crown of glory" not only as yet retains its original color, but gets more so—but some of our friends have, and we have never known it to fail in restoring the hair to its original color. We advise such as are becoming premature gray to give the "Restorative" a trial.—Chester (Ill.) Herald.

Important Notice.

But one solution to the mysterious office performed by my Electric Oil, that I or any other Physiologist can thus far discover, and that is its probable incorporation with the Electric or Nervous Fluid of the human body. This is more obvious from the sudden change in the nerves of sensation, (those little monitors of suffering,) noticed by all who use my genuine Electric Oil, from 29 South Eighth street, near Chestnut. It is a most important discovery, as the people will soon know, from actual experience. It relieves suffering as does no other known combination, and that suddenly. Price 50c and $1.—None sold by Pedlars.

The Terms of Sale will be as follows;

Twenty-five per cent. cash down, five per cent. of which to be paid at the time of sale, and the balance on delivery of the deed of conveyance. For twelve and one half per cent. of the down payment, as above named, satisfactory endorsed paper, payable with interest in 60 days at some bank in Buffalo, will be taken instead of cash. The one-half of the balance of the purchase money to be paid with interest in four equal payments, on the 1st of July, 1st of September, 15th of October, and on the 1st of December next. The other half, with interest, to be paid in four equal payments, on the 1st of June, 1st of August, 1st of October, and 1st of December in the year 1859. All of which sums must be secured by notes and mortgages on the property sold, with insurance policies on the same, in Companies satisfactory to the Receivers, and to an amount equal to the balance of the purchase money remaining unpaid.

The Stock of the Company will be received on the following terms:

Twenty-five or any less per cent. of the amount of each sale of the Capital Stock of said Company will be received as additional collateral security, at the rate of 25 per cent. on the original stock, and the per centage so secured two years time, from the 1st day of the present month, will be given on the amount—which per centage may apply and be substituted as the first cash payment for an amount all over and above twelve and one half per cent.

The indebtedness of the Company will also be received as additional collateral security at par, for any amount of the purchase money at the time of the sale, after first receiving 12½ per cent. in cash, and the time of payment will be extended two years from the first day of the present month, if a sufficient amount of the indebtedness of the Company be turned out to the Receivers to cover the remaining purchase money in full; but if a less amount of indebtedness of the Company be turned out as collateral security, then the time will be extended only, on such indebtedness, in the proportion which the same bears to the several installments falling due in 1858 and 1859, and be payable pro rata at those times.

All valid admiralty claims, and other valid liens on the property will be received as cash, on the first or any subsequent payments.

The form of the bill of sale and mortgage, inventory of property, and all other information in possession of the Receivers, will be furnished at their office in Buffalo, at any time previous to the day of sale.

ONE DOLLAR
WILL BUY
ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR!!

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is excited to action.

JAUNDICE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.

SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects all acidity and sourness of the stomach.

For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this greatest remedy in the world.—State Fact.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly, that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

THE DOOMED MAN.

The following lines were written twelve years ago by Rev. J. Addison Alexander, D. D., Professor in the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J., and have been published but once before. Now, while the religious interest is so broad and deep in our country, they are exceedingly appropriate, and ought to be widely circulated:

There is a time, we know not when—
A point, we know not where,
That marks the destiny of men
To glory or despair.

There is a line, by us unseen,
Which crosses every path,
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.

To pass that limit is to die;
To die as if by stealth—
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.

The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay;
That which is pleasing still may please,
And care be thrust away.

But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly, a mark;
Unseen by man, for man as yet,
Is blind, and in the dark.

And yet the doomed man's course below,
Like Eden may have bloomed;
He did, does not, will not know
Or feel that he is doomed.

He feels—he knows that all is well,
And every fear is calmed—
He lives—he dies—he wakes in Hell.
Not only doomed—but damned.

O. where is this mysterious bourne
By which our paths are crossed,
Beyond which, God himself hath sworn
That he who goes is lost.

How far may we go on in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does Hope end, and where begin
The confines of Despair?

An answer from the skies is sent,
"Ye that from God depart,
While it is called 'to-day' repent,
And harden not your heart."

JUDGE DOOLY AND THE LANDLORD.—Harper's Magazine has a correspondent in Georgia who overflows in good things. He gets of the following good anecdote:

Judge Dooly, an eminent jurist in Georgia, forty years ago, was a great wag as well as a great Judge—witty as well as wise. His gravity gave effect even to his jokes, and these were more frequent than his decisions. One of his fancies were to "take people down" who were in the habit of exaggeration. The way he used up Austin Edwards, keeper of the hotel at Elberton, is a caution to all story tellers of whom Austin was the prince. He always told the whole truth, and more. "It was material," he said, "he liked uncommon things better than common ones—'twas a heap more amusin' anyhow." One morning at breakfast, this long bow landlord had been relating one of his extraordinary yarns, and Judge Dooly being at the hotel, and listening to the story, sat in solemn silence until it was over, and then remarked that he had an awful dream in the night and was very much depressed this morning. The landlord was awake in a moment, and begged the Judge, if it would be no violence to his feelings, to relate the dream, as all would like to hear it. The Judge still declined, as it might hurt the feelings of others.

"Oh, do tell it, Judge—we must have it," urged the landlord, and the company joining in, the Judge proceeded as if he were about to sentence a criminal to be hung:

"Well, I dreamed last night two lawyers and myself had retired to a private room to divide among us a fee received from a hard case, which had been carried through with a mighty deal of lying on all hands. While we were settling the division, in steps the devil, who, without any formalities, said he had come for us—we had told him enough, and if he left us any longer we might repent, and so he'd lose us. We did our best to persuade him to let us off, but he was inexorable, till at last I ventured to ask if he would take a substitute.

"'Whom do you offer?' he asked.

"'Austin Edwards,' I said, 'keeper of the Elberton Hotel.'

"'Good! he'll do,' said he, 'send him down.—I'll take him for all three of you!'"

The table was in a roar, and the landlord was cured for a time at least, of his habits of overdrawing. He passed away years since, and Judge Dooly is gone, too, so there is no harm done in telling the story.

A MARRYING MAN.—The police of the city of Philadelphia have been for some time on the look-out for an individual who has succeeded in robbing several females of their means and peace of mind, by most shameful deceptions. On Monday, officers Callihan and Carson arrested the scamp in Dock street. He is charged with having married a number of females, and after having securing their property, leaving them.—Mrs. Prudence R. Wilson, of Manayunk, charges the accused with having married her under pretence of being engaged in business, and after securing all her property, left her. He is charged with having, under the name of Boynton, married a lady of Trenton, whom he left after obtaining possession of $800 belonging to her. He is also charged with having married a lady in the lower part of the city, giving the name of Smith. From her he stole $251 and a gold watch, and then decamped. At West Chester it is alleged that he married a lady, whom he soon afterwards left. He paid attention to a lady named Carrigan, in the eighteenth ward, Philadelphia, and made a pretence of wanting to marry her, but by some means she escaped his toils. It is believed that the accused has wives all over the country, and those who have been duped by him should come forward and testify. The accused is from New England, and and is about forty-five years of age. He is a large man, weighing about 250 pounds, has black hair and whiskers, and a florid complexion. The fore finger of his left hand has been cut close off.—Pennsylvanian.

FIDELITY.—Never forsake a friend. When enemies gather around—when sickness falls on the heart—when the world is dark and cheerless—then is the time to try true friendship—They who turn from the scene of distress betray their hypocrisy, and prove that interest moves them. If you have a friend who loves you and studies your interest and happiness, be sure to sustain him in adversity. Let him feel that his former kindness is appreciated, and his love not thrown away. Real fidelity may be rare, but it exists in the heart. Who has not seen and felt its power? They only deny its worth and power who never have loved a friend, or labored to make a friend happy.

☞ Yesterday, as a stranger from Boston was passing through the State House yard, he was accosted by an Irishman with, "An' where, please yer honor, is the voting place?" "I do not know," was the reply, "I am a stranger here." "And faix, so am I."—Hartford Courant.

AGENTS WANTED.

THE GREAT GIFT SALE of Gold Pencils, by A. H. Wilford & Co., Washington City, D. C., offers an excellent chance to Agents to make a few dollars with little or no expense. We are manufacturing and selling beautiful solid Gold Pencils for $5 each, (the actual retail price,) and giving each purchaser a gift, worth from two dollars up to two hundred dollars. Each purchaser of a Pencil is sure of a $2 gift at least, or it may be worth $5, $10, $15, $20, $30, $50, $75, $100, or $300. The prizes are distributed to purchasers by a simple plan of drawing, and as soon as the name of a purchaser is received with the $5, his Pencil and Gift are put in a small box, in a safe manner, and sent to the owner by mail, post paid. Our plan gives perfect satisfaction, as each purchaser can sell or trade his Pencil for all it costs him, and retain the gift gratis.

We want a good agent in every part of the country, to solicit purchasers, and a good agent, to be successful, should first have a Pencil and Prize to exhibit. We allow an agent one dollar cash for each purchaser he obtains, which amount he may retain out of the $5; and the first person becoming a purchaser at any post office, will receive the agency for that neighborhood.

A NEW AND IMPORTANT IDEA.

We propose to let a person know what gift he will draw, before requiring any money to be sent. Any person desiring one of our massive Gold Pencils, can first send us their name and address, and we will make their drawing and inform them by return mail what prize they drew. They can have the privilege of sending for it if they choose. We cannot, however, give this privilege but once to any person, and we make this offer to establish Agencies, and introduce our Pencils in a neighborhood. After a person becomes a purchaser and accepts the agency, we require all persons in that locality to send their $5 in advance through him. Purchasers may rely upon it that we will promptly forward their Pencil and Prize, whatever it may be, by return mail, on receipt of the $5. Full particulars, with a plan of distribution, will be sent to each person making application for a drawing. Address

MEDICAL.

HEALTH OF AMERICAN WOMEN.

WE have given place in the columns of our paper to several letters from Dr. Bridge, Secretary of the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY, to our most eminent physicians, upon the subject of the diseases to which American Women are so liable, and we now desire to call attention to the following, which is taken from The Pittsburg Daily Gazette, a leading journal of the Western States:

From the Pittsburg Daily Gazette, Feb. 17—Editorial.

"We are pleased to be able to report an event like the following, which is so complimentary to the progress of science in our own country. We are informed that the Graefenberg Company have been most liberal in disseminating their valuable remedy among those of limited means, and that Dr. Bridge spends much of his time in gratuitous consultation with the afflicted. Such men deserve the practical rewards of science and deep study, which we again congratulate them upon receiving."

"HONOR TO AMERICAN TALENT.—We learn that the prize of ten thousand roubles, offered by direction of the late Emperor Nicholas, for the discovery of a reliable remedy for the diseases which afflict women to such an extent, has been awarded to the Graefenberg Company, an institution in the United States of America, located in New York. Dr. Bridge, the physician of the establishment, who wrote the report, and who prepares the medicine, (which is called Marshall's Uterine Catholicon,) has been elected a Fellow of the Imperial College; and we understand that similar honors will be offered him here.—We have seen a letter from some of our most distinguished physicians, highly complimenting his medical attainments, congratulating him on the honor he has achieved for the Graefenberg Company, and requesting some of the Catholicon for use in their practice. We could have wished that this honor had been gained by our eminent physicians who competed for the prize; but, failing in that, we had rather it would belong to our transatlantic descendants, than the distinguished French and German physicians who also endeavored, though unsuccessfully, to prove that they had a remedy which would answer the purpose.

"The diseases in question—Falling of the Womb, Whites, Deranged Menstruation—and the long train of difficult and distressing symptoms consequent upon them, have long baffled the best efforts of medical science. It is, perhaps, because of their greater frequency and intensity in America, that a successful remedy should come from there; and it is doubtless owing to Dr. Bridge's admitted superiority over all other physicians in that class of diseases, that he has been enabled to bear away the palm from all competitors in his own country."—London Paper.

"AMERICAN SKILL TRIUMPHANT.—A private medical establishment in New York, America, (The Graefenberg Company,) has borne away the prize offered for the proof of a successful remedy for Falling of the Womb, Whites, Disorders of Menstruation, &c., &c., though French, German and English Physicians of eminence have all contended for it. We understand that our leading physicians and medical colleges, with that magnanimity characteristic of true greatness, have ordered a quantity of the remedy—Marshall's Utherine Catholicon—which will be forwarded as soon as enough can be made to spare what we need from the great and increasing demand in the United States. The world-wide reputation now given to this Remedy by the above reward, is well deserved by its great value, as we have most abundant testimony to prove.—French Paper.

AFFIDAVIT.

I, AARON HACKLEY, Recorder of the City of Utica, N. Y., certify that I have examined several ladies of this city, of the highest and most unexceptionable character, who testified that they had been afflicted for years with Falling of the Womb, Whites, Deranged Monthly Periods, Discharges from the Uterine Passage, and symptoms connected with them, such as loss of appetite, nervous affections, disturbed sleep, weakness in the back, loss of flesh and spirits, pain in the back and kidneys, difficulty in passing water, coldness of the extremities, trouble in the stomach and bowels, variable appetites, nausea, irritability and fretfulness, hurried respiration, palpitation of the heart, chills and flushes of heat, great anxiety, pain in the shoulders and spine, dizziness, restlessness, bloatings, fatigue in the legs, general pains and troubles, more particularly at the time of the menstrual period. In all of these cases the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted in vain. One physician, of thirty years' experience, testifies also to his knowledge of the truth of these symptoms; and he substantiates the testimony of the ladies that MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON entirely cured them, after the failure of everything else.
AARON HACKLEY, Recorder of Utica.

The above should induce every one afflicted to try the remedy.

TO MOTHERS.

When young girls from the age of 12 to 16 years are troubled with cough, nervousness, deranged digestion, and have a pale face and various other symptoms of disease, Marshall's Uterine Catholicon will arrest the disease and restore the rosy hue of health. Many of these cases are called consumption, even by the attending physician; but experience has proved that they are not so, and that they will all recover under the influence of the Catholicon. The seeds of consumption are undoubtedly oftenest sown at that period of life, especially when the menstrual flow is tardy in its appearance, and fatal disease may result from a neglect to use the Catholicon. The importance of this cannot be too strongly urged.

Women afflicted with ordinary Uterine diseases, consumption, debility, or troubles following abortions and miscarriages, would do well to address a letter, confidentially, to Dr. Bridge, Secretary of the Graefenberg Co.

Dr. Joshua F. Bridge, the Secretary of the Graefenberg Company, is a regular physician. He has devoted his principal attention to the diseases of women and children, in which, as well as in difficult chronic diseases, he has been very successful, and attained a great reputation; and he will give his personal attention to letters from those using or desiring to use the remedy. A detail of the symptoms will enable him to judge correctly of the case and the probability of a cure. He has supervised the preparation of the Graefenberg medicines for the last ten years, and he will personally guarantee their purity and value.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON is unhesitatingly offered as a certain remedy for all those diseases which render the lives of so many women miserable, which trouble almost every one, and from which no one is entirely exempt. Abundant and reliable testimony leaves no room to doubt this fact.

Marshall's Uterine Catholicon, (of which nearly 1,000 bottles are sold weekly,) will certainly cure Falling of the Womb, Whites, Suppressed or Painful Menstruation, Bloating, Inflammations and Diseases of the Kidneys or Urinary Organs, Retention or Incontinence of Urine, Heartburn, Costiveness, Nervousness, Faintings, Palpitations, Cramps, Disturbed Sleep, and all troubles, organic or sympathetic, connected with the uterine organs.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL!
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., Dec. 20th, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER:—I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., Monterey, Ia., writes 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR:—Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The progress of this Corporation has been stable and uninterrupted through seasons of financial sunshine and storm, or periods eventful in or exempt from sweeping conflagrations and maritime disaster. Being long established on a cash basis, the troubles of the credit system affect us in no material particular.

During "hard times" the security of reliable Insurance is an imperative duty—the ability of property owners to sustain loss being then much lessened.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's Office, No. 50 Dearborn St., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, and at the office of the Lake Shore Railroad, Milwaukee, by A. G. Leland.

Office, No. 1 Kneeland's Block.

CITY LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. PALMER & CO'S Addition. No. 21. One mile and a half from the Spring Street Bridge.	We have laid off the balance of our original purchase on Spring street into lots, and now offer them on the same terms as heretofore, viz: On each hundred dollars of purchase money five dollars in advance, and three dollars per month thereafter until paid WITHOUT INTEREST. The lots are beautifully situated on high ground in a healthful locality, and embraces some of the finest views about the city. They will bear examination.

The very low price at which they will be sold, together with the terms, commend them to the attention of all classes who desire a home and exemption from rents.—Young men, mechanics and laboring men, and tradesmen of small means have here an opportunity to invest that is within their reach. We have an agent on the property every day, after 3 P. M., to show the lots.

REFERENCES AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 29, 1858.

We, the undersigned, have known Dr. S. M. LANDIS for a number of years, and having personally been under his admirable treatment, do most cheerfully recommend him to the public confidence as a scientific, successful and able practitioner of the "Healing Art," as acknowledged by progressive Water Cure and Hygienic advocates.

We equally deem him worthy of public appreciation wherever he goes, and we much regret his loss as a Physician, Teacher and Public Lecturer.

Should any friends of the undersigned meet with this, they will be kind enough to regard this as a special recommendation of Dr. LANDIS.

GRAIN CLEANER & SEPARATOR

HORTON'S PATENT.

G. D. BINGHAM & BRO.,
Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.

THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfections as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into this State. It is fire proof, not liable to get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the scouring cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We respectfully invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis.

MEDICAL.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonous fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.
